Aloha! Thank you for your interest in staying at Hale Kōlea Cabin located in the village of Talkeetna, Alaska.

Hale Kōlea (Ha-lay Co-lay-ah) Cabin or "Kōlea House" in Hawaiian is a quaint (616 square foot) contemporary cabin nestled in a rural neighborhood on South H Street in east Talkeetna, just a 15-minute walk from historic downtown Talkeetna.

Hale Kōlea Cabin is a SMOKE-FREE, NO PETS and NO-HOST establishment that can accommodate a maximum of 2 people.

Our cabin is equipped with a full stainless steel kitchen, bathroom suite with a custom cedar Finnish sauna and separated laundry facilities. Otherwise, the layout is that of an open studio with no designated bedrooms. One queen bed is available.

The theme of our cabin celebrates the many Alaska-Hawaii connections, primarily the kōlea bird (Pacific Golden Plover). This amazing navigator migrates twice a year, flying three days non-stop from Alaska to Hawaii in August, then back to Alaska in April!

Our Sumer Peak-Season rates (June through August) are: $215/night or $1,330/week. Our Winter Off-Peak rates (October through April) are: $145/night or $875/week. Rates for May & Sept. are: $195/night or $1,190/week.
