About Collins Painting and our Unique Business Focus:

Collins Painting is a family-owned business started in 2005. We maintain a narrow focus on quality, detailed, high-end residential interior painting. Since the beginning, we have aimed to break the mold of the typical painting company by arriving on time, being meticulous in our work, being clean, neat, and family friendly, and seeking to win each client's trust through extra mile service. This focus has served us well over the years; nearly all of our work comes from word-of-mouth, and we have been honored to win several customer service awards from Angie's List and Houzz. Ultimately though, what drives our business is our commitment to honoring God in everything that we do.

About Our Team:

Our crew redefines the standard of the typical tradesperson in many ways. As a whole, our team has been described as conscientious, diligent, and courteous. Each person has a similar background in that they learned the trade through apprenticeship. Besides their focus on work, the team enjoys coffee, and it's quite common to have discussions of books, current events, podcasts, and lively discussions about which trim paint is the best. They also enjoy a wide variety of hobbies, including photography, musical instruments, art, outdoor activities, and traveling.

Our Commitment to You:

- Provide proper training, support, and tried and proven resources to equip you for success
- Consideration of your overall work / life balance. We seek to invest in and support you in your life pursuits whether inside or outside of work. For example, on a practical level we sponsor consultations with financial / life coach professionals, and fitness club memberships.
- Provide team fellowship opportunities: throughout the year we schedule fun and encouraging team events, such as a team breakfast, family cookout, Christmas dinner event, Red's game, etc.
- Overall, we strive to provide an encouraging atmosphere, good work experience, good comradery, broad-based job skills training, and advancement opportunities. We value your time here regardless of the length of your season with us.
